My owner Ágo is disabled, he can't talk or walk and his hearing is not perfect. We were very attuned to each other from the first moment we met. From his hand gestures I understand what he wants from me and what I can do to help. For example: I can open the door, I can take his shoes if he asks, I can take his socks off, I can pick up dropped objects and put them on his lap. I wait patiently for him to take the objects from me, e.g. keys that have fallen off, and I even pick up metal objects for him. I can now walk nicely with the electric wheelchair and put small objects in the basket. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Watch some videos to see what Bambi does to help his owner. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Without words II. ○ Without words III.
